OFF TO BOY'S STATE - Joseph W. Cox, Alfred C. Wynn and Donald Wayne Lacher joined other coast delegates today to go to Jackson by chartered bus to attend the annual Boy's State. Sponsored by the American Legion here, the youths were selected from St. Stanislaus, Bay State, Hancock North Central for their qualities of leadership and scholarship. The week long convention will illustrate to the delegates how state, county and municipal governments operate and they will take active part in the administrative, legislative and judicial branches of the government.

Worth Considering

Last week the Echo urged interested residents to write a letter to this paper, talk to members of the commission council or tell the affected merchants their view on the parking meters now on Beach Boulevard and Main Street. So far we have received one letter to the editor on this question, but two people have talked to us about the matter, one of whom made a suggestion that we think merits consideration.

Under this proposal the city would go along with its plan to remove the parking meters and substitute for them a one hour parking limit where the meters are now located. Receipts for the payment of a 25 cent fine, such as are now used for parking meter violations, would be placed at locations along the streets. A stiffer penalty would be applicable when the violator failed to deposit his 25 cents within a specified time.

This suggestion would eliminate the nuisance many find in having to put a coin in the meter and would probably stop most of the parking for excessive periods by local people. All day parking by out of town fishermen would be likely to continue but at a lesser rate, and, of course, the money raised for the city by the meters would be out.

Don't Wait

There is now less than a month until owners of all Mississippi licensed cars and trucks will be required to have had their vehicles inspected and passed.

Hancock County now has five authorized inspection stations, but it appears there are still some four thousand vehicles in Hancock County to be inspected, some of which undoubtedly will be inspected, or already have been, outside our county. Nevertheless, our inspection stations now have a real job to complete inspections for those of us who go to them and a last minute rush will find many unable to have their car handled.

We've already had two months. It will be our fault if we're given a ticket on July 1 for failure to have the old bus inspected and passed. Remember, minor repairs may also be needed, even on a 1961 model.

We Were Wrong

The Supreme Court of The United States has fooled us again. Of course, had we known Chief Justice Earl Warren would write the majority opinion, we might have changed our considered opinion.

We refer to the court's decisions handed down Monday dealing with Sunday Blue Laws in four states. The court upheld the constitutionality of such laws insofar as the U. S. Constitution is concerned, and presumably the same result would be reached concerning similar laws in 43 other states. However, the split decisions, 8 to 1 in one case, 6 to 3 in two cases and 5 to 4 in the other, indicate the specific application of such state laws has some weight with the justices.

In his opinion Chief Justice Warren, judging from the Associated Press story, continues to follow a course of finding facts as he wants them to be when he states that the purpose and effect of these statutes is not religious. We assume it's merely a coincidence that Sunday is the day of worship for a substantial majority of Americans. Enough said.

By Gone Days

10 YEARS AGO

June 1, 1951—Beverly Jean Montfey resigned as queen of the first annual May festival sponsored by the CYO of the parish in the Kila School gym last Sunday. Shirley Jean Neel was named of honor and selected as the court queen. Other members of the court were Clara Gosselin, Carolyn Curry, Bette Faye Glass, Jeannette McCaskey and Yvonne Gorrage.

25 YEARS AGO

May 29, 1936—Stella Turman of Waveland completed another spectacular athletic campaign with the close of the track season at Harrison-Stones-Jackson Junior College in Perkinson girls' track and field meet, winning the Mississippi Junior College conference championship, before entering the junior college she was an outstanding performer in Gulf Coast regional circuit.

SSC Camp Planned

Brother Philip, principal of St. Stanislaus College, reports that the annual summer camp season will be held from June 18-22. Further inquiries may be obtained from the school.

WHAT IS SUNBURN?

Sunburn is an inflammation of the skin caused by exposure to the sun's rays. A suntan may be beautiful but a sunburn can be serious; the victim may have severe pain and have a fever. Even on a cloudy day it is possible to get a first or second degree burn from sun rays filtered through the clouds.

To obtain a smooth, healthful tan your druggist has many preparations one of which will be suitable for your needs. Sunburn can be prevented by gradual exposure to the sun and by application of one of these products. If you should become sunburned, consult your physician.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Polly At Waveland
For once your usually verbose reporter is almost at a loss for words—I've searched in vain for one single blackberry blossom, but even the blackberries have disappeared—all of this is a desperate effort to pinpoint the source of our latest cold snap—how-ever, once more nature has come to the rescue—it was locust winter—I realize locust trees are few and far between in our locale, but those brilliant orange hued blossoms that so closely resemble poincianas have distinctly locust-like leaves—they are blooming everywhere, consequently our chilly spell—for the benefit of our more literal minded readers, such as the lady who wanted to know if we had consulted a veterinarian before printing the news that a dog had three kittens (E. Englehorn, "Bould" A. Goss Fishing, May 25) - I am forced to state that the above statement concerning the weather has no scientific backing what-so-ever, but I frankly prefer it to the currently popular theory that our recent all-beat climate is the product of atom bomb experiments and space probing—after all old Mother Nature has managed to cope with the rock age, the ice age and much later the mechanical age and survive—so I have great faith in her adjustment to whatever man can contrive.

Sick Notes
We are quite late on this, but Alphonse spent several days in Hancock General recently but has returned to his Sears Ave. home and is well on the road to recovery.
Other get well wishes go to Gladys (Mrs. Harry) O'Neill who was able to resume weekendening in Waveland after major surgery in a New Orleans hospital a couple of weeks ago... to Millie Church—she's in Touro, to Pat Jones, of the Phillips 66 Cafe—she was slated for surgery Tuesday at Hotel Dieu and Mrs. Thomas Lynch, of the Henrix Motel and Restaurant who was near the weather last week. Also to our old friends Charlie Bradley and Curtis Matherne, both recent patients in Hancock General.

Graduation Festivities
Graduation exercises all over have produced many festivities. Dot and Manny Hubbard and family drove to New Orleans Friday to watch daughter Joan receive her cap - Joan completed her first year at Hotel Dieu School of Nursing - the Hubbards are presently visiting oldest daughter Ann and husband Dr. Donald Levy and of course, the baby in Rochester, Minn.
A big crowd was on hand to watch J. D. Bourgeois receive his diploma from Stanislaus—they included of course his parents, Maïste and Ducre, the Slim Jenkins, Ann Langley, Mrs. R. S. Jennings of Jennings, La., Mrs. Josephine Greco and her brother, Charles Soldano, Henry Carrio who is spending some time at his summer home, sister Audrey and her husband, Sgt. Bill Cobb of Biloxi and their guest Capt. Masahido Aride of the Japanese Air Force, Capt. Aride and Bill met while Bill was stationed in Japan - it was his first visit to a Catholic Church and he was fascinated, taking many pictures to send home to his wife and four children in Japan.
Another large affair was the family dinner given Sunday by Groce and Sam Bordages celebrating Buddie Wilson's Stanislaus graduation. The whole family showed up - 8 children, their husbands and wives and 19 grandchildren, I think - that is if no one slipped a new one in on me since the arrival of Myrtle and Wesley's latest.

Church Fair Time
St. Henry's began this annual series Sunday serving barbecue and fried chicken to a large crowd. St. John's in Lakeshore has theirs scheduled on June 24-25-St. Clare's workers are already busy with preliminaries...
cles and horses on occasion—Now that they've been "set free" from school.

Baby Digest
First hand report on Gary, the smallest and newest Develle—He's plump, pretty (won't that kid hate me when he's about 12?), healthy and just sleeps, eats and sleeps some more—Mamma Ann looks fine and feels the same—Auntie Pam adores him and wants to do nothing but kiss him constantly. Henry, Gayle and the boys are so proud of the little fellow they can talk of nothing else. Marilyn and Buddy Havery are emulating the Wilcox family—the baby was expected last week, but as yet seems reluctant to face putting in his or her appearance. Bessie and Lester are both doing their daily dozens pacing and waiting for that important phone call informing them of the birth of their first grandchild. Linda DeHaan, who is also expecting around the end of July, journeyed to the city to check on the situation Tuesday.

Miss Kidd and Mr. Rigby Are United in Marriage

The altar of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church was adorned with two brass vases filled with white gladioli and greenery for the wedding at 11 a.m. Saturday of Miss Barbara Ann Kidd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Earl Kidd, and Gerald William Rigby of Albuquerque, N. M., and New Orleans. He is the son of Mrs. George H. Thomas of Albuquerque, and Gerald A. Rigby of El Paso, Tex.

Rev. Bernard Haddican performed the double ring ceremony before a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The bride was escorted by her father and selected a snowy white gown of Chantilly lace over silk organza and tulle. The snug bodice was fashioned with a high neckline, long sleeves and was buttoned down the back with tiny lace covered buttons. Her long full skirt ended in a chapel train. Holding her shoulder length veil of French illusion was a crown of organza trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a missal decorated with a single white orchid and narrow white satin ribbons.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Charles Staehle of Bay St. Louis and the other attendants were Mrs. Anderson Paulborn of Baton Rouge, and a cousin, Miss Judy Quintini, of New Orleans.

Their short frocks were of pale yellow organza with white overskirts. Encircling the waists were wide yellow sashes which formed small bustles in the back. They wore yellow headbands trimmed in the back with Shasta daisies and ivy and carried bouquets of the same flowers. Their slippers were yellow satin.

Attending the groom as best man was Thomas Meyer of Albuquerque, while the groomsmen were a brother of the bride, Thomas Kidd, of Jackson, and Charles Staehle. Neilus Rhodes, Jr., and Lawrence Mauffray ushered.

The reception was on the lawn of the bride's parents on Ulman Avenue where Mrs. Kidd received in an embroidered turquoise linen sheath with matching accessories and a hat of white petals tipped on the ends with turquoise. Her corsage was a white orchid. Mrs. Thomas selected a beige lace ensemble, matching accessories and green cymbidium orchids pinned at the shoulder.

The bride's table, covered in a white cutwork cloth, was under the grape arbor, decorated with ivy and daisies.

After the couple cut their four tiered wedding cake, Misses Kay Kidd, Sandra Souzeau, Jewell Bilbo and Geraldine Kidd served. Also assisting in serving were Dick Daley, Lucien Kidd and Paul Cox.

Destin, Fla., was the honeymoon destination of the young couple and the bride traveled in a gold two piece linen accented with black accessories and the orchid from her bouquet pinned at the shoulder. When they return, they will be at home here on Carroll Ave.

Among out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Larry King of Albuquerque, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Prest, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hoelzel, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Quintini, Mr. and Mrs. L. ### African Boats Due

A new type racing boat, the GP-14 made in Africa, is scheduled to make its appearance in the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club regatta on June 19. The boat is being introduced by Capt. J. W. Clark of the Mississippi Shipping Co. It is a 14-footer and resembles the lighting in appearance and carries 103 square feet of sail area. Eleven boats are due to arrive in New Orleans June 9 and are expected to be delivered here June 13. After the first races June 19, two races are scheduled each Saturday and Sunday for the remainder of the summer.

An organizational meeting of the GP-14 fleet members was conducted last week in the home of Capt. and Mrs. Clark to decide upon rules and regulations for the new class. Officers elected were Dr. Wesley McFarland, fleet captain; Bill Pitcairn, secretary; Walter Rausch, treasurer; and J. W. Clark, measurer. Junior officers are Ann Clark, fleet captain, and Ripple Rausch, secretary.

Shoulda Gone Fishin'

BY EDDIE ENGELHORN
Fishing has been real cool in the early morning hours and some beauties are being taken right off the seawall in Waveland which is infested every morning with numerous old regulars who either don't go to bed at night or hit the sack so early, they can't sleep in the morning. Informers tell us no matter how early they pass the Jackson Ridge vicinity, there they are — fishing even before daylight.

Things at the Keys have been opening up a bit but in general fishing there has been disappointing this year. Some fair catches have been reported but the trout are running small. A report from Bill Pinson's Camp on Bayou Caddy Tuesday morning said the specks were really biting, several parties coming in for more bait and heading back again. They were mixed in size but some yellow-mouths were also taken.

Soft Shell Scene

Floundering and soft shell crabbing continues to be average. Henry Lang says he thinks low tides have been coming too early in the evening while other experts contend the moon has a lot to do with it, preferring a rising moon while picking up their soft shells. Some flounders say the best time for spearing is on a rising tide following a low tide while others — oh well, the surest way to become unpopular is to tell people how to fish.

Game Warden Nolan Ladner showed the soft shell crab set how to do it Tuesday night. He was home by 9 p.m. with 77 nice ones and has witnesses to prove it.

Mrs. Leon Doerflein, a fisherman from way back, layed in at least a six-month supply of crab bait Wednesday morning when she outloughed a man sized crab and hauled him out of Bayou Caddy with the assistance of a bystander. Mrs. Doerflein was crabbing near Martin's Gulfview Fishing Camp and decided to try a fish head on her rod and reel. The resulting battle lasted at least an hour until the monster was finally subdued by a bullet from Mr. Martin's rifle.

Fresh water fishing continues good although possibly dropping off a little. Best spot seems to continue in the area around Ed Kelly's camp, Mulatto Bayou, Cowan's Bayou, etc.

Words on Worms

We haven't fished with worms for many a year but would like to pass on an old trick we found extremely successful. Use a small hook, of course, with a small worm hooked in such a way that his ends can wiggle. As closely as possible to the top of the hook we put a tiny spinner with a couple of red and yellow beads. Move the bait occasionally.

Buddy and Marjy Stokes of Memphis, Tenn., were vacationing for the past week at Ray Stewart's home on Bayou Pines in River Gardens Subdivision on the Jordan. They are annual visitors to the Bay and to the Stevens and had a successful week fishing catching several redfish, trout and croakers in the Jordan and at the Keys.

From Bess Wagner's department comes word that the junior grade Isaac Walton, Lewis Wagner, Scott Prentice and Tommy McAuley caught 17 assorted denizens of the deep off the Yacht Club pier while son James came home with five croakers, and a baby catfish. Chuck Wagner, Dominic Scafid and sister Janet caught seven dozen and three crabs off the car bridge Monday morning and claim they could have got more but ran out of bait. They got about the same amount Sunday. Looks like they are in business. Not to be outdone, Chuck's younger brother Jim got two eels off his pier which he proudly brought home.

We overlooked a couple of items from City Hall last week. Warren Traub got a three-inch perch in Ansley. Also making the trip was Warren, Jr. Mayor Johnny Scafid took Larry Kronenberger of Dover, N. J., fishing out of Jim Kelly's camp. They fished in White's Bayou and Mulatto Bayou bringing home some nice green trout and perch caught on fly rods.

When It Rains It Pours

Mr. Van Peski of United Fruit Co., says he is going through the worst streak of bad luck he has ever experienced. First, he fell off the roof of his house and had hardly recovered when he dropped a steel girder on his foot. Latest casualty was Saturday night when his gasoline lantern exploded and Van is now swathed in bandages.

The one that got away: Polly Peers' dad, Tom Lyons of Nashville, Tenn., writes that Johnny Vaught may be chagrined to know that Hollis, Iowa State star quarterback and everybody's all-American is a native of Possum Trot, Miss.

First mackerel of the year taken from the Bay that we know of was caught Tuesday by Son Capdepon near the first jigger of the railroad bridge. Weighed between five and six pounds and was caught with a slaughter pole and dead shrimp.

Phil Dufour caught 15 dozen crabs using 11 nets. Neighbor Eddie Blaize performed the boiling ceremonies.

Sidney Sandoz got a three and a quarter pound speck off the seawall Monday morning using a Mr. Champ. Jim Giametta, James Mayfield, Johnny and Jack Kramer and all the old regulars have been reaping big rewards nearly every morning.

K. S. Rheams says he will be able to get in some fishing now that he is back at work at Gulf Chevrolet. Note to boss: means he is working shorter hours.

Bedlam, You Say?

If any young recruits are ever looking for a way to make the guardhouse, here's how one private did it. He got hold of some boxed fox scent (don't ask me where to get that) tied it on a string and dragged it through the whole camp, under beds, in the sergeant's closet, etc., then about 2 a.m. turned loose 18 hunting dogs follow a fox trail. You can imagine the bedlam that ensued.

If we look somewhat beat lately it is because we have been working so hard these afternoons trudging around the beach posing and taking pictures of the Deep Sea Fishing Rodeo beautiful princesses. What a job!

Chapman Regatta Won by Biloxi YC

Defending champions, Biloxi Yacht Club, repeated last year's performance to win the second annual Chapman Memorial Regatta Saturday and Sunday at Pass Christian Yacht Club.

Final totals in the 24 fish class sloop races were Biloxi 34 3/4, Gulfport 33 1/4, Pass Christian 29 1/4, and Bay-Waveland 22 1/4. Several of Bay-Waveland's expert skippers were unable to participate and were replaced by junior class sailors.

Local trophy winners in the regatta sponsored by the Mississippi Coast Yachting Assn. were Ed Heath, fourth in the first race; Harry Chapman, fifth in the second race, and Carl Marshall, fourth in the fourth. The regatta consisted of four races between the 24 boats.

Gulfport Yacht Club got off to a 6 3/4 point lead in the first race Saturday and although hanging on determinedly was finally overcome by Biloxi crews who got three out of four first place trophies. Gulfport skippers placed high in all races. Winners were Henry Ethel, Biloxi; Bob Brodie, Biloxi; David Andre, Gulfport, and Jack Baker, Biloxi.

Trophies were awarded by Commodore Kenneth W. Pepperdine, Bay-Waveland; Gordon Bishop, Pass Christian; Bill Kennedy, III, Biloxi, and Stanford Morse, Jr., Gulfport. Donors of the memorial trophy, Henry and Wallace Chapman were introduced by Commodore Nolte Alford of the New Orleans Yacht Club, vice president of the Gulf Yachting Assn. and the Chapman brothers presented the trophy to the winning Biloxi crew.

Waldrop's Sub-Par Game Ousts Merritt

Waldrop's sub-par performance Sunday over Press Christian Golf Club's 72 lay-out to oust defending champion Jack Merritt 4 and 2 in the 18-hole final of the 1961 St. Louis Open.

In the other semi-final match Woody Waggoner, the 1771 handicapper, edged John McDaniel 1 up after winning the first hole.

Waggoner and Merritt will meet in the title this weekend at the club which has played Sunday golf since 1904.

Waggoner made the first hole in the final match, but Merritt was able to tie the match at 1 up after winning the second hole.

Waggoner took advantage of Merritt's straying tee shots, particularly the strongest part of his game, in taking a 3 up advantage in the final hole.
